(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
LOUISVILLE, May 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In a long editorial "Up on Getting Drunk," Henry Watterson makes the following remarks about the Roosevelt trial today:

"History and literature are so studied with the hollowness of vicious history, all the way from Noah onward through the annals of the world, that we are not commonly represented as examples of strict sobriety, that it would seem much ado about nothing in Col. Roosevelt to seek to fix by legal inquiry and affirmation the various kinds of intoxicants he has never used and which he actually detests, and the precise number of drinks he has not had for breakfast."

"With what purpose in his proceeding and to what end? Whether he drinks wine or beer, or cocktails or mint juleps or what he does not drink at all may be said in a sense to be nobody's business but his own, assuredly nobody's concern except the immediate circle about him."

"Surely a man who has lived in the world three and fifty years, in the line of duty, the head of a happy and prosperous household, a good husband and father, a prodigiously hard worker, could afford to let tongue wag as they will about his exits and his entrances, his food and his drink and his intimate personality."

"It must be to most self-respecting Americans a humiliation to have the world-famous of their living countrymen, an ex-President of the United States, engaged in what appears as trivial and needless a task as that which has taken him to the Michigan courts."

"It seems a kind of fool's errand. It will change no man's opinion, good or ill, certainly not the opinion of just and thoughtful men."

Ex-Member of Kitchen Cabinet
Say Roosevelt Reminds San Diego School Boy.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
MARQUETTE (Mich.), May 29.—After four days' proceedings in the suit of Theodore Roosevelt against George A. Newell, an leprosy epidemic, it was indicated tonight that another week would be consumed in completing the case.

Friday being Memorial Day, the hall at the conclusion of today's session announced that court stood adjourned until 9 o'clock Saturday morning.

Attorneys Pound and Van Benatchon, for the plaintiff, and Belden and Andrews for the defendant, today followed the colony of leprosy victims nearly every State in the Union, across the Atlantic, through the Mediterranean Sea, the Suez Canal to Africa, through the wilds of the continent back to Khartoum, through some of the capitals of Europe and back to Oyster Bay, Saguarly, near his birth for traces of liquor.

Substantially the testimony was a repetition of that recorded at previous sessions, that the colony touched liquor, but so rarely and so lightly that he is, in the eyes of today's witnesses, virtually a teetotaler. Those who testified today were Andrew W. Abo, a former railroad fireman of Ohio; former Judge A. Z. Blair, who disintegrated hundreds of bottles of wine for the plaintiff; Charles Willis Thompson, a New York newspaper man; James H. Garfield, Clifford Finch, Lawrence Abbott, owner of the magazine of which the plaintiff is one of the editors; Edward Heller, nationalist of the African hunting expedition; O. E. Davis, secretary of the National Committee of the Progressive party; Philip Roosevelt, whose father is a first cousin to the former President, and Edward Emerson, a newspaper man who was held prisoner to the colony of the Rough Rider Regiment.

CUBAN CRUISER ARRIVES.

NEW YORK, May 29.—[By A. P. Day Wire.] The protected cruiser Calhoun arrived early today, bearing representatives of the Cuban government, army and navy, to pay tribute here to the memory of the United States sailors who perished when the battleship Maine was blown up in Havana harbor fifteen years ago.

HOW WOULD YOU INVEST $500?The Times Will Award Cash Prizes For the Best Letters, Not Exceeding 150 Words, On This Subject.

In one of the columns of the "Liner" section of this issue of the Times is a classified advertisement stating in effect that $52.50 will be paid to the persons submitting the best suggestions as to the most profitable way of investing $500 in a business venture, or in any other way, in Los Angeles.

This advertisement will appear from day to day until May 31, in a different column of the Times' classified advertising pages, AND WILL CONTAIN THE LETTER AND NUMBER OF A BOX IN THE TIMES POSTOFFICE, TO WHICH REPLIES MUST BE SENT. NO REPLIES WILL BE CONSIDERED UNLESS THEY CONTAIN THE CORRECT LETTER AND NUMBER OF THE BOX ADDRESS THAT APPEARS IN THE ADVERTISEMENT.

Read the "Want Ads." in today's Times, find the advertisement above referred to, and submit your suggestion before June 1 in not more than 150 words, and mail or deliver it to the address stated therein.

The person submitting the best suggestion as to the most profitable way of investing $500 will be awarded a cash prize of $50, the second best suggestion $15, the third $10, the fourth $5, and the fifth $2.50.

Find the classified ad. in today's Times which contains the address to which it is necessary that your suggestion be sent, submit your idea and win one of these prizes. This contest is open to everybody except persons directly and indirectly connected with The Times.

The prizes will be awarded by a committee appointed for the purpose, and the winning essays will be published.

This contest will close June 1.

BATTLE OF THE SPELLER.

Let Ella Young Decide and Shun Book Agents, Mayor Harrison Advises School Board.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, May 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The big battle in the school board meeting on Wednesday on the textbook question was followed by a decided lull today. No one except Mayor Harrison cared to do much talking. Mayor Harrison advised the members of the board to leave the selection of textbooks in the hands of Mrs. Ella Young, superintendent and to let school book agents alone.

The Mayor said he did not know James Plunkett, the "dime" fame, whose spelling book has been urged by Henry W. Huttman and John C. Harding, according to Mrs. Young. Mrs. Young declared it was a closed incident as far as she was concerned. Henry W. Huttman, vice-president of the board, who was said by Mrs. Young to have urged the adoption of the spellers in the interests of peace, refused to say a word in regard to the controversy.

Employee of Illinois Athletic Club Strikes Manufacturer with a Water Bottle.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, May 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Matthew G. Forbes, a leather manufacturer, was seriously wounded tonight before the eyes of dinner guests in the Illinois Athletic Club grillroom, when a waiter serving the party, attacked Forbes with a water bottle.

Three times the infuriated waiter struck the manufacturer. Two blows on the head laid the scalp wide open. Another blow on the forehead caused a dislocation and possible fracture. It was all done so quickly that interference was impossible.

Then the waiter, Harry Hale, took advantage of the confusion and escaped. He was placed under arrest later. The waiter was displaced and being reported for instantation.

Crowd of Council Bluffs Citizens Charges Council Jail, But Sheriff Removes Prisoner.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
COUNCIL BLUFFS (Iowa), May 29.—A mob numbering several hundred persons, intent on lynching Henry Wiley, charged the County Jail late tonight, but when the leaders were told that Wiley had been sent out of town, began to disperse.

Wiley, who is an Italian, is charged with having murdered Howard Jones, a local grocery storekeeper. The mob, apparently unopposed, began a hunt for Wiley, although a large number remained in the vicinity of the jail.

After leaving the County Jail, the mob went down the principal street and smashed windows in six confessionally stores and restaurants. More than a hundred of the men then went to an Italian settlement near the railroad yards and destroyed considerable property.

Chief of Police Groom succeeded in dispersing the mob two hours later.

Businessmen from Bay City Ask Him to Veto the Strohbridge "Water District" Bill.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SACRAMENTO, May 29.—Mayor Frank H. Mott of Oakland and a group of businessmen from Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley, Emeryville, Piedmont and smaller bay cities appeared before Gov. Johnson today and opposed executive approval of the Strohbridge "water district" bill. Senator Strohbridge, author of the bill, came to the capital from Hayward to speak for his measure.

Assemblyman Gelder of Berkeley, who introduced the bill, and the so-called "medical trust," opposed Dr. W. F. Snow, secretary of the State Board of Health, in a debate on the "medical bill" today. The approval of the "medical bill" will annul the American "medical trust" and lower the price of medical commodities.

MILITIA MARCHES ON ENEMY.

Sixteen Companies Leave San Francisco to Defend North Bay From Invasion of Hostile Army.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—Sixteen companies of State militia of the bay counties left this city late this evening for Marin county, where they will defend the North Bay territory from an imaginary hostile army, supposed to have landed from transports at Bolinas Bay. The problem is one decided on by officers of the militia as part of the spring maneuvers.

The troops consist of companies of the California Artillery Corps, nine from this city and one from San Mateo; five companies of the Fifth Cavalry; Infantry of the bay cities, and Company B of the Signal Corps, San Francisco.

(A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, May 29.—The Board of Health adopted today a resolution forbidding the use of living bacterial organisms in the inoculation of human beings for the treatment of disease unless permission is first obtained from the board. Although Dr. Friedrich F. Friedmann was not mentioned in the resolution, the effect of the measure, it was announced, will be to prohibit the further administration of his treatment for tuberculosis except under special permit from the board.

Wireless Call Brings Rescue For Passengers.

American Steamer Haverford From Philadelphia to Queenstown Hits Rocks Off Cork's Head—Nearly a Thousand Are Taken Off in Short Time Without Panic.

(BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.)
QUEENSTOWN, May 29.—The American liner steamer Haverford, which sailed yesterday from Liverpool for Philadelphia with 124 cabin and 450 steerage passengers aboard, went on the rocks westward of Cork's Head this afternoon while feeling her way cautiously in a dense fog.

The wireless again demonstrated its efficiency. Within a few minutes the ship was in communication with Queenstown and great tugs which ply between Queenstown and passing liners were dispatched to the rescue at once. Before dusk all the passengers, with tight luggage, had been brought safely ashore. The ship was hoisted by a crane and towed to the harbor. An attempt will be made with the aid of powerful tugs to tow the vessel off at high tide at midnight.

The captain and crew remained on the ship and at midnight the Haverford was pulled off the rocks by tugs and towed to Queenstown, where she is anchored outside of the harbor.

The company's Queenstown agents soon afterward saw the three of the Clyde Shipping Company's tugs. Thus the stranded vessel in a short time was surrounded by a small fleet.

There were about three hundred aboard the American liner, as she was shrouded in the densest fog, but nothing resembling a panic occurred. The transfer to the tugs was made in perfect order.

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF
THE TIMES, May 23.—[Special Dispatch.] Chancellor David Starr Jordan of Stanford University contributes a "Confession of Faith" to the 1918 and 1919 yearbook. Chancellor Jordan's confession follows in part:

"I am interested in a great many things of good living and of good government. I do not believe in war, either of men or money or both, and I have used whatever influence I have in behalf of peace, in behalf of national economy and national conservation, in behalf of clean and wholesome living among men. No man can accomplish much that is worth while if he burns his candle at both ends. And he must not burn his candle at both ends if he expects to last through the game of life.

"And now, when my candle is fading
a little, I am trying to use its light for those things that seem best worth while. And of those that come near me, three stand out as all important. These are clean living, sound education and fair play between men and between nations. No one man can accomplish very much in the world while he does his best to do his best to himself. The worst enemies to the world are those who are to fight are those within us,
and by the same token, there is no real victory as satisfying as a conquest of the evil within. To have the enemy all to ourselves, where we can at him, fight him, jump on him and draw him out, gives us every advantage if we succeed at last. If we do not, we drift into the stream and the deadwood of nonentity and serve to the world does not do for their keep.

"Because to be clean is to be strong,
because every drug system cuts the nerve power,
I am profoundly interested in helping men to be sober and pure.

"I believe in fair play between men and in the endless struggle against precedence and privilege which we call democracy. This is the only way in which we can hope to be wise enough and just enough to hold their own against all tyranny of organized interests and of money. And the final outcome depends upon the individual.

"As the host of mail vanished from human history, almost overnight,
I will the soldier and the warship which, when all men see as clearly as I do, I see now the wild, insane of it all.

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF
THE TIMES, May 23.—[Special Dispatch.] The marriage of Joseph Macdonald, son of the Resident Minister to the United States, and Miss Frances Macdonald, daughter of Dr. and Mrs.
J. A. Macdonald of San Mateo, was celebrated today, when the pretty high-school girl announced that she had been Mrs. Cordova since last August.

The Macdonalds' present had been the romance of their daughter, who is only 16 years old.

When met Miss Macdonald, when was a child at St. Matthews Millennium Academy at Burlingame. While a student at Stanford University last year he was informed his family had moved to leave for Ecuador. Then Macdonald induced Miss Macdonald to marry him.

She slipped away to California's Golden Gate, San Rafael, where the wedding was held. On their return to San Francisco, they resumed their studies and kept the marriage secret.

The couple will take apartments in San Francisco, where the groom, who is 19 years old, will probably continue his father's interests in the city.

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF
THE TIMES, May 23.—[Special Dispatch.] Mrs. Alice H. Loeffler, niece of the late Daniel Meyer, millionaire and philanthropist, was granted a divorce from Emil Loeffler by Judge Charles Smith this morning.

The Loefflers were married at Rome,
Italy, in 1915. Loeffler said he represented a German banking interests in Germany.

After their marriage the couple took a trip to New York. While in the city, according to Mrs. Loeffler, the couple told her to wait a minute or two in New York while he dashed out to Chicago to transact a little business.

Mrs. Loeffler waited a minute or two, and then came, and for all she knew, her husband, a still waiting,
for she says he never came back.

As they were divorced on the charge of desertion.

WEDDING ENDS ABRUPTLY.

Five Days After Marriage, Oregon
Couple Part for Divorce, Charging
Each With Infidelity.

BY FEDERAL WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]
PORTLAND, May 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Last Thursday, Arthur H.
Blackstone and a woman known as Boudin, aged 19, gave address. The wedding was performed the following day.

On Friday, May 27, just five days after the wedding knot was tied, Harrington filed suit for divorce in Circuit court, charging infidelity. Mrs. Harrington's name is stated to have occurred in the case.

He asserts that he has not seen her only three days. This is believed to constitute a record for quick shattering of domestic bliss.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SAN JOSE, May 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] F. A. Gunn, representing the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, opened offices in this city today, and began the work of disposing of buildings which occupy lots along the new right of way of the Southern Pacific through West San Jose. The opening of the office, railroad men say, means the beginning within a short time of building operations which will shorten the distance between San Francisco and points south of San Jose, including Los Angeles, by a mile.

The ultimate cost of the improvements will be in excess of $2,000,000. It is estimated, and will include a new underpassing depot on the site of the old narrow gauge station of the Santa Cruz line, as well as extensive freight sheds. All lines into San Francisco will converge at West San Jose.

The franchise on the Fourth street line, which is part of the Coast line, run out in three years and at that time that road will either be abandoned or made electric, according to present plans. Expensive city crossings will be eliminated by this move.

their infants, was the advice of Dr.
A. J. Jaffa, a woman physician, to the members of the child's welfare conference of the California Congress of Mothers, which is in session today in this city. Dr. Jaffa declared that mothers should be taught to send their children to experts in infant dietetics, just as they send them to schools or day in the courtroom of Judge Thomas F. Graham, to help his two daughters,

Mrs. Leana A. Lang and Mrs. Mabel
E. Hall, in their fight for the $100,000 estate of his sister, Mrs. Ellen L. Hayward. Mrs. Mary Ellen Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Hayward and also claimant of the estate, believed that Riordan had disappeared forever.

Riordan, now an old man, is foreman of a sheep ranch in North Dakota.
Nearly twenty years ago, when a strike was on in the mines of Tehama county, he hit a man over the head with a shovel. The man died, but Coroner's jury exonerated Riordan on the ground of self-defense. Soon after-

ANCIENT DRUIDS WIN A VICTORY.

California Grove is Freed
From Parent Lodge.

Supreme Court Decides It
An Independent Order.

Was Expelled For Failure to Pay Per Capita Tax.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF
THE TIMES, May 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A decisive victory for the Druids of California, in their legal controversy with the Supreme Grove, United Ancient Order of Druids, with headquarters at Indianapolis, the Supreme Druid organization of the world, was scored today when Supreme Judge John L. Van Nostrand issued a permanent restraining order directed against the Supreme Grove, enjoining it from interfering with the Grand Grove of California attempting to interfere with its subordinate lodges, or trying to organize new subordinate lodges in opposition to the Grand Grove of the State.

The restraining order, in protecting the California Grand Grove from attempted interference on the part of the Supreme body, makes the State organization an independent organization, the only one of its kind of all the Druid organizations of the world, and puts it in a position entirely separate from the Supreme Grove.

It was brought out during the trial of the case, which lasted for two months, that half of the Druids of the world reside in California.

THE RESTRAINING ORDER.

The restraining order, besides being directed especially against the Supreme Grove, is against James P.
Martindale, Julius E. Goddard, Samuel D. Dettmer, representatives of the Supreme Grove, delegated with the power of organizing new subordinate lodges.

The controversy between the Grand Grove of California and the Supreme body of Indianapolis began when the California Grand Grove became dissatisfied with the management of the Supreme Grove, and declined to pay a per capita tax levied on all Grand Groves, to be collected by the respective Grand Groves from the subordinate lodges in their membership.

The California Grand Grove then was tried by the Supreme body for insubordination, expelled by the Supreme Grove and its charter revoked.

In accordance with this result, the subordinate lodges were ordered to the governing organization, the Supreme Grove, to pay their taxes direct to the Supreme Grove.

But instead of taking the word of the Supreme Grove as final, the California Grand Grove asked the court for a temporary injunction of the restrain-ing the Supreme Grove from ousting it, and then proceeded to seek a permanent restraining order.

Trial on the issue of the permanent injunction has occupied two months, but ended today in a decisive victory for the State organization.

This gives the California Grand Grove full jurisdiction in all its matter, makes it free from interference from the Supreme Grand Grove, and gives it full swing to control its property in California of an estimated value of $1,500,000.

patch.] On the verge of a nervous breakdown, the result of his arrest, Robert L. Bradford, a graduate of the University of California with the class of 1913, is held at the city prison pending the decision of H. H. Hart, Oakland multi-millionaire, as to whether there will be a prosecution.

Bradford is accused of forging
Hart's name to a power of attorney.
At the city prison Bradford, a clean-cut, keen-looking young man, declined to discuss his predicament.

"I am ruined," was the burden of his statement.

He graduated from the College of Jurisprudence at the commencement exercises in May, at the Berkeley University, and is said to have shown un-

The Famous
Chalmers "Six"

$2750

Money Can't Buy More—in Service and Satisfaction

If you want proof of it let us send a Chalmers "Six" to your door. Take the wheel yourself.
Feel the thrill of the power of fifteen horses vibrant, easier, yet controlled by the tips of your fingers.

You'll be surprised how easy
the Chalmers "Six" is to operate.
Anyone in the family can drive
this car—anyone but the baby.
Everything, even the carburetor, is controlled from the dash. Tires are inflated from the compressed air tank.

Push the button which starts the motor and we're off.

Turn into a rough road: keep up your speed—you won't feel the bumps. This car has eleven inch upholstery and extra large elliptical springs. With long wheelbase and solid, Pullman-like construction, the "Six" affords a comfort which is unknown outside the most expensive cars.

Stretch your legs in a "Six"; there's plenty of room. We spend $105,000 extra per year on roomy bodies to give you the maximum of riding ease.

See that bill ponder? Take it on high.
The Chalmers "Six" has the long stroke motor. It is high-powered for its weight.
A horse power for every 74 pounds.

Notice how you seem to glide over the road. No noise—no vibration. Noise is evidence of friction—of wear. Silence proves the motor is running in perfect balance; sea-sure ground to mathematical exactness; every bearing fitting its journal with precision. These are the things that add years to the life of the "Six."

These things, which you can't see, are the things which count most. Thus all steel parts in the Chalmers "Six" are four times as strong as good service demands. Only a few of the most expensive cars have as many drop forgings as these make the Chalmers strong where others are weak.

More and more people are turning to this car for luxurious comfort and perfect reliability—the big car with the little up-keep cost. May we show you why?

Lack of Appetite

When you have no appetite and even the sight of food is nauseating, you will have to build up your blood to get lasting relief. No amount of dieting, stimulating drugs or any treatment that overlooks the blood will help you for any length of time.
You can, however, always build up the blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You can be certain they will make the blood richer and purer with every dose. This healthy blood will help to make your stomach strong and well. Dr.
Williams' Pink Pills offer lasting benefit to every sufferer from indigestion.
Send for the free diet booklet
"What to Eat and How to Eat."
A postal card will bring it.
Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists at 50 cents per box or six boxes for $2.50 or they will be sent, postpaid, upon receipt of price by the

HUNTINGTON BEACH.

HUNTINGTON BEACH, May 29.—
Two big realty sales were made here today, which mean more homemakers very close to this city. One hundred and fifty acres were sold by the Huntington Beach Company,
through the Shaper Investment Company of Los Angeles, to Clock and Harriman of Long Beach and will be subdivided into small acreage for settlers. Thirty-two and a half acres were sold by the same owners to E.
W. Brooks of Los Angeles, overlooking a beautiful plateau with an uninterrupted view of the ocean two miles distant. This will also be subdivided, probably into quarter-acre lots. Both tracts lie within two miles of Huntington Beach.

Causes of Stomach Troubles.

Sedentary habits, lack of outdoor exercise, insufficient mastication of food, constipation, a torpid liver, worry and anxiety, overeating, partaking of food and drink not suited to your age and occupation. Correct your habits and take Chamberlain's Tablets and drink not soon be well again.

BREAKS MASONIC PRECEDENTS.

First Woman in History of Order Addresses Grand Lodge in Michigan.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
LANSING (Mich.) May 29.—Masonic precedents extending back to the very foundation of the order, were broken yesterday when Mrs. Minnie E. Keyes, Grand Worthy Matron of the Order of the Eastern Star of Michigan, was permitted to address the Grand Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, at an annual convention.

Mrs. Keyes is the first woman in the history of Masonry, it is said, to be admitted to a meeting of the Grand Lodge. She made an appeal for funds to establish an orphanage for children of deceased members of the order.

WHEREFORE THE KING OF ITALY ENTERS A PROTEST.

New Jersey Real Estate Men in Vicinity of Newark Put Up Sign on Building Lots Which May Result in More International Complications.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
TRENTON (N. J.) May 29.—Gov. Fielder received today through the State Department at Washington a protest from the Italian embassy regarding an advertisement announcing the sale of building lots in Newark, N. J., which it was stated that no sale would be made to colored people or Italians.

The embassy in its communication stated that the advertisement had given rise to excitement among Italians and it is apprehensive lest a feeling of resentment may cause public gathering and lead to disorder.

The Mayor of Newark informed the Government that his information was that the sale was being held in Union county and not in Newark. Gov. Fielder will communicate with the Union county authorities.

PRINCE AND BRIDE RETURN.

Imperial Couple Pay Short Visit to the Kaiser While on Their Honeymoon Trip.

[By Atlantic Cable and by Federal Wireless Line to the Times.]
BERLIN, May 29.—[Special Dispatch.] The Imperial couple, Prince Ernst Augustus of Cumberland and Princess Victoria Luise of Prussia, today paid their first visit since the wedding to the Kaiser and Kaiserin at the new palace in Potsdam. The Empress was overjoyed to have her daughter with her once more, even though it was for but a few brief hours.

The young people came to Berlin on their way from the honeymoon hunting lodge at Hubertusburg to the city where they will spend the next two weeks. The Kaiser and Kaiserin drove with them to the Anhalter depot, where they left in a special train. All the way the happy pair was greeted with enthusiastic cheers. The Prince and Princess travel in a special train.

NEGROES HONOR HENDERSON.

Several Hundred Join in Meeting as Tribute to Senator Who Drafted Anti-Slavery Amendment.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
WASHINGTON, May 29.—Several hundred negroes from all sections of the country, gathered Wednesday night to honor the memory of the late John B. Henderson, former Senator from Missouri, who drafted the constitutional amendment abolishing slavery. Speaker Champ Clark and Senator Clapp of Minnesota were among the speakers, while Mrs. Henderson, widow of the late Senator, also addressed the gathering. The meeting was held in the Lincoln Memorial.

FRENCH DEFEAT MOORS.

Army of Occupation in Morocco Wins Decisive Victory in Asom District.

[BY CABLE AND P. TO THE TIMES.]
PARIS, May 29.—A decisive victory over a large body of Moors, said to have been composed of the entire hostile Moroccan forces in the Asom district, was reported today by Brigadier General Clapp of the French army of occupation in Morocco.

After a hot engagement, the Moors, leaving a hundred dead on the field, fled in confusion. The French troops were thirty-six killed and wounded.

DUN'S WEEKLY REVIEW.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
NEW YORK, May 30.—Dun's review tomorrow will carry.

While business sentiment, especially in the East, displays a marked degree of conservatism, the actual volume of industrial and mercantile activity shows little or no diminution. The distribution of business is uneven, however, and the fact that the country is in a state of transition is evident. The market for bonds and stocks was generally quiet today, with a few exceptions. The bond market was particularly active, with a number of new issues being placed. The stock market was also active, with a number of new issues being placed.

FOUR-HOUR INQUIRY AND SUPERFICIAL VERDICT.

"Investigation" of Pier Disaster Leaves It Where It Began.

Promise to "Fix Blame at All Costs" For Death of Thirty-six and Injury of Two Hundred Ends in Censuring One Rotten Girder—No One Responsible For Building is Even Called—Will the Grand Jury Act?

ALL the blame for the loss of thirty-six lives, injury to over two hundred and distress and sadness to thousands as a result of the pier disaster in Long Beach last Saturday was placed on a piece of timber, a girder 4x14 inches, with a rotten heart, by a coroner's jury at the beach city yesterday afternoon. No recommendations were made as to whether the timber should be prosecuted.

Board of experts.

The six jurors, all residents of Long Beach, brought in a formal verdict after an investigation that lasted only four hours. No attempt was made to place the human responsibility for the existence of the faulty timber under the tramping feet of thousands in spite of the promise to "fix the blame at all costs."

The questions of the jurors and their attitude through the inquiry seemed to many to indicate that they had not heard the cry of the dying and wounded, but that they were guarding against possible financial loss to the city. No one responsible for the building of the wrecked structure or for its inspection or maintenance was called as a witness. Informed by the Times of the verdict last night, Dist. Atty. Fredericks declined to comment upon it. He said that he would earnestly confer with the members of the grand jury with a view to determining whether or not the matter shall be taken up by that body where the coroner has left it and the investigation made thorough.

The construction of the approach to the Auditorium was severely condemned by a board of three experts appointed by the Society of the Sons of St. George, the coroner and the Mayor of Long Beach. Two of the board—A. C. Martin and C. E. Richards—are disinterested parties living in Los Angeles. The other member, W. H. Austin, was appointed by the seaside city's Chief Executive.

Martin read a report to the jury that was signed by all three investigators. While Martin was on the witness stand he referred frequently to "the girder that failed." The experts pointed out that through faulty construction the lives of the hundreds who passed across the bridge hung in the balance on the rotten end of one board. There were no braces, no safeguards, no iron bands or great strong props to save the day if the worst came to the worst.

The experts admitted that it would have been difficult to detect the weak place in the timber, but they made the point that the general construction should have been of such a nature that the failure of one support would not have meant the collapse of all.

HERE IS THE VERDICT: This is the verdict of the jury: "We the coroner's jury, find that Martha J. Burnetts came to her death May 24, 1913, by suffocation or other bodily injuries caused by the collapse of a portion of the floor forming the approach to the Municipal Auditorium at Long Beach, Cal., of May 24, 1913, said collapse being due to a decayed condition of the girder supporting the floor joist of said approach."

That was all. The cause assigned for the death of Mrs. Burnetts was made to apply to the thirty-five others who perished. The juryman was: R. M. Davis, foreman; R. S. McVey, J. H. Allen, C. J. Hargis, R. P. Davis and H. M. Blackburn.

EXPERTS' REPORT. The following is the text of the written report submitted to the jury by the three experts: "To Mr. Calvin Hartwell, coroner of the County of Los Angeles, Cal.: "Dear Sir: In regard to the cause of the disaster of the Long Beach

PARDONED BY PRESIDENT

Executive Clemency Extended to a Local Prisoner Under Sentence for Immigration Law Violation.

President Wilson has commuted to and at once the sentence of Randolph Kelly, who was sentenced to eleven months in the County Jail by Judge Withers on his plea of guilty to violating the immigration laws.

Kelly was a ship carpenter, and last fall brought to San Pedro a woman as posing to his wife, in a vessel from Sydney, Australia. It transpired that the woman had been married in New South Wales and that the couple had removed the name of her husband and supplied that of Kelly in the marriage certificate. She was deported.

Kelly has been in bad health for some time, and it is understood that Philadelphia friends importuned President Wilson for the commutation of sentence.

And Change of Venue.

DOCTOR ASKS QUICK TRIAL.

AIR SANATORIUM SENSATION IS BEFORE JURY MONDAY.

Court Denies Defendant's Request For Appearance of Woman Whose Charges That She Had Been Subjected to Water Cure Led to Prosecution of Medicine and Nurses.

Attorneys for Dr. C. C. Mangor, manager of the Canyon Crest Sanatorium, Glendale, declared in Justice Forbes' court yesterday afternoon that a change of venue will be asked because of what they term the "sensational attacks of the press." Later, however, one of the lawyers demanded an immediate jury trial for the doctor.

Justice Forbes replied that the defendant is entitled to a speedy hearing, but that he could not have a jury trial until Monday.

Request by one of the lawyers that Miss Edna Christensen, on whose statements the investigation was begun by the District Attorney, be brought into court was refused. The lawyer declared he believed she is suffering from delirium tremens and that by Monday the effects will have been dissipated.

Miss Matilda Hallberg, the nurse, who is of athletic build, and her associate, who declares her name to be Lillian Peers instead of Peers, as written in the complaint, will be given a trial Monday on a battery charge, at the same time their employer is put on his defense.

Deputy District Attorney Jones, who has been superintending the investigation, sent Detective Maehl to the Canyon Crest Sanatorium yesterday to subpoena several other attendants named by patients.

Jones says he has received complaints from several patients who are deluged with water by means of a hose and that women of delicate mentality are subjected to brutality. Jones received a letter from a woman who evidently was once a patient at the Manger Sierra Madre institution. She made allegations about Manger's life in St. Paul. These will be investigated. She also told of several young women who may be witnesses before the grand jury.

Jones said yesterday that even if some of the patients prove to be insane, that is all the more reason why they should be treated with kindness. The law makes stringent provisions against mistreatment of the feeble-minded.

Investigation of the case of Mrs. Anna Holman will be made. If necessary she will be sent to Rest Home or some other place if reasonable proof can be obtained showing she has been treated brutally by the Hallbergs and Peers women.

It is said that other nurses seldom remained at the sanatorium after they found how it was being conducted, but that Nurses Hallberg and Peers have been the chief reliance of Manger. He is supposed to have known Miss Hallberg in St. Paul.

VALUABLE GIFT TO LIBRARY.

The University of Southern California announces a gift of 300 volumes of medical books to the library of the institution by Dr. J. H. G. Carter of this city. The collection includes many valuable and standard works and will be divided between the general university library and the library of the College of Physicians and Surgeons.

PRESIDENT RELEASES

AN IMMENSE AVERAGE.

SUPERVISOR CHARLTON of the Angeles National Forest, has received official notice that President Wilson has signed the executive order eliminating 199,999 acres from the northern line of the local reserve, along the edge of the Mojave Desert.

This land will be open to settlement under both the homestead and desert land laws after sixty days, during which time the fact that it is open to settlement and a description of the land must be published.

The land is of a character which makes it more valuable from an agricultural point of view than for grazing purposes, and lies outside the timber zone of the Angeles reserve. The lack of water is the one big drawback to the tract. Efforts have been made to develop water from an underground source but so far with poor success. The only well supplying even a small amount of water is more than 1000 feet deep.

Since the announcement some weeks ago that a portion of the reserve would be open to settlement through the local land office there have been numerous inquiries at the Federal building for information in regard to the land. It ought to be thoroughly understood that the land is not for sale, but that it is now open for even a fair supply of water are poor.

No prospective home-seeker should attempt to make a home on the land without a thorough knowledge of conditions as they exist. Unless they do, and profit thereby, any attempt to homestead the land must end in failure. Later on some source of water may be found and utilized, but none is in evidence now. The only stream that runs through the land is now appropriated by the power companies and is not available.

MILLIONAIRE BALKS AT

COSTLY SILK STOCKINGS.

SHEEP charges and counter-charges were made yesterday by T. Billington, a handsome old man with a flowing beard of white, and Mrs. Billington, pretty, handsomely-gowned and putting a picture of ardent spring. The affair took place in Justice Sumnerfield's court, where a local shoe firm was suing Billington for $34, representing two or three pairs of shoes and delicate gauzy hosiery to match.

"Charge the bill to Mr. Billington," the young wife remarked, according to the testimony of a clerk.

Billington is a wealthy Covina orange grower, a member of the country club of that town, and reputed to be a millionaire.

"My wife spends far too much money," charged Billington, when he took the stand. I gave her an allowance of $50 a month when she dismissed a divorce action a few years ago. We are spending more than $150 a month. One must be economical in these days."

"Do you think that is much to spend?" asked Justice Sumnerfield.

MUCH FAINTING IN ODD TRIAL.

Teachers Suing Bookstore Men for Damages.

He Accuses Them of Having Stolen From Him.

Story of Queer Affidavit Is Brought Out.

No playwright from Ibsen to Flinno or from Strindberg to Henry James ever portrayed a drama more vivid than one more pitilessly scorching than that petulant chapter of life now being staged in extra session No. 1 of the Superior Court, presided over by Judge Childs, in which Fred D. Jones, a first-street book store proprietor, is sued for $44,999 damages for alleged defamation of character by J. T. Anderson and his wife, Mary H. Anderson, Glendale teachers.

This trial, which began Monday, and is likely to continue for another full week, reached a climax in dramatic realism yesterday. In the morning Mrs. Mary Anderson and her mother, Mrs. J. N. Hall, fainted in the courtroom, and Mrs. Anderson's sister, Miss Bertha N. Hall, went into hysterics when Jones was testifying. In the afternoon all three women were laughing audibly as Jones was submitted to a grilling cross-examination.

It was 11 a.m. when Mrs. Anderson, who sat beside her husband, within the railing reserved for the bar, fell in a deep swoon. Bailiff W. T. Woods carried her into the judge's chambers, where she was attended by Mrs. Jessie Russell, who is a physician, and by Dr. R. A. Blackman. Mrs. Russell is a witness in the case, having formerly been a trustee of the Glendale Junior into the private office of the judge.

Harass Meeting

Four Municipal Conference days were addressed last evening by John W. Shenk, Albert Lee, J. W. Snowden, Capt. H. E. O. and Alexander MacKinnon. J. W. well was an added starter at these gatherings which were for their campaign, enthusiasm determination in the cause of agency, good government, honest administration and civic decency.

The first meeting at the home of Mrs. H. F. Varian, No. 1114 1/2th street, was followed by the beautiful chapel of the Holy back home, a street-corner in sharp contrast with the Sunset boulevard, and concluding a parlor meeting at the home of J. W. Cate, No. 14 Ingraham.

At each of these meetings Shenk reiterated his now well-understood declaration of principles. The first of decency, he said, is to determine if the city is to be raised in Los Angeles; but, he said, "since it has been raised, it is a question which the people have been quick to see and it is which they must depend on to determine at the polls next day."

Shenk stated that the years he spent in the city's service, have him to carry on the big enterprise to which the municipality is committed without waiting any time in being acquainted with the duties of the office. His declaration that only way to reduce taxes is to be in addition to the candidates, location is adjacent to the business element and the first "rough-ho" tendencies of the campaign were countered when a number of "Apaches" attempted to break the meeting. A request was sent to police headquarters for a motorcade policeman, but up to the time the meeting adjourned, half an hour or no attention had been paid to it.

Four-Hour Inquire.

nished up. There were evidently many items omitted and changed from what the contract called for, but certain portions of the building are stronger than specified. The entire construction leads your committee to believe that the structure and strains were never properly computed. In general, it appeared that the main members had a safety factor of approximately 2; whereas, good engineering practice requires a safety factor of 4. However, the connections had even a smaller safety factor than 2.

"In other words, girders which are 4x12 inches should have been 12x12 inches, and floor joists resting on these girders should have been 2x12 inches, and not 2x10 inches. The cause of failure was the breaking of a 4x12-inch girder at its support on a post in the center of the wrecked station. This girder had entirely decayed for some inches outside of its seat on the post, and all its load was being carried by a 3x12-inch angle brace, which was imperfectly connected.

"There was a 3x12-inch scab or splice 24 inches long, tying this girder to the adjoining girder, but this scab had no bearing on the post, and was affording no assistance in carrying the load. However, this scab effectively concealed from detection by a casual examination the rottenness of the girder which failed.

"It would have been a simple matter to have detected this decay if proper minute inspection had been made by one familiar with such work. The excessive decay of this girder was doubtless caused from the fact that the floor above had no drainage, and, as we understood, after each rain water stood for quite a time over this portion, slowly permeating into the joints. The top of the post shows a marked degree of decay.

"The weakness of the existing knee bracing, and the total absence of adequate bracing at right angles to girders, contributed to the failure of the remaining portion. As the direct cause of this accident is so apparent, it seems unnecessary to seek for contributory causes.

"Had the lower floor been properly constructed it would have withstood the impact of the falling load, but the girders of this floor had such poor support the wonder is that it held under ordinary usage. Had the lower floor remained intact we believe the accident would have been far less serious.

"No minute inspection of other portions of the building or approaches was made, but enough was noted to justify your committee in recommending that the building be condemned.

"Respectfully submitted,
(Signed)
ALBERT C. MARTIN,
W. H. AUSTIN,
CHARLES E. RICHARDS,
WITNESSES CONDEMN.

All witnesses who were asked to express an opinion as to the cause of the disaster condemned the structure of the approach. The witnesses who found fault with the plan of construction of the approach or of the material used are:

Mayor Alexander, Building Inspector Backus of Los Angeles, Mark Cohn, chief clerk to Backus; G. W. L. Young, chairman of the Empire Day Committee; Councilman Topham and Mrs. Maggie Hand, who represented "Britannia" in the parade.

"To a layman it appeared that the construction of the approach was very light," Mayor Alexander said. "I noticed that the timbers were rotten. The flooring seemed thin and insecure. I wonder that the disaster was so long delayed."

"The approach was of light construction throughout," said Backus. "A glance at the structure showed that it was weak throughout. In structures that are to bear great weights the practice is to place the girders squarely on top of the uprights, or at least fasten them with iron shoes. In the case of the approach that collapsed the girders were mortised on the side of the uprights, thus taking the strain off of the center where it properly should be."

When Young was on the witness stand Assistant City Attorney Hootenfy of Long Beach inquired if his committee had made an inspection of the Auditorium previous to the disaster.

"We didn't give the matter a thought," Young replied. "We were told by the Long Beach committee to get the crowd there and that they would be taken care of in good shape. We were depending entirely on the local committee to look after the safety of the city's guests."

"The question as to who was responsible for having the doors to the Auditorium locked came up while Young was on the stand. The witness said in reply to a question from Hootenfy:

"The management of the hall was left entirely in charge of the local committee. It seemed proper that such details should be left entirely with local persons. I understand that George H. Ristall was chairman of the local committee that had this detail in hand."

AS TO THE MARCHING.

Witnesses disagreed as to the extent of the marching in front of the Auditorium just previous to the crash and as to whether a band was playing in the vicinity. Young, Councilman Topham and others of the British contingent testified that the parade had not reached the approach to the hall at the time of the disaster and that no band or baggage corps was playing in the immediate vicinity.

Sergeant of Police Kutz of the Long Beach department testified that he was certain that there was marching in front of the building and band music there just before the collapse of the approach. The jury did not appear to be interested in the question, and no further witnesses were heard on it.

The forenoon session of the investigation was given over to the formality of identifying the persons killed. The law is satisfied in this particular by taking the testimony of friends or relatives.

Warren C. Lett, a traveling salesman of this city, went on the witness stand and swore to the jury that he had lost his wife and two children in the disaster. A lad 10 years old, the only survivor of Lett's family of four, went to the City Hall with his bereaved father, Arthur D. Lawrence of Los Angeles testified that his mother is dead as a result of the disaster. John S. Home, a hotel proprietor of Denver, said that his mother left the Colorado capital two weeks ago to spend a vacation at the beach and died from injuries sustained in the death trap. A score of other bereaved persons went through the form of affirming a sad reality.

Affairs in Long Beach are resuming their usual course, though the disaster is still the main topic. The Relief Committee has the situation well in hand and the injured are receiving every attention. Reports from all of the injured ones last night show steady improvement save in the case of Miss Margaret Reed, Mrs. E. A. Farnsworth, and Mrs. Florence Miller. Little 14-year-old Miss Reed has not recovered consciousness for a moment. Several times she has rallied but each time slipped back to the brink of the grave.

Inseparable during a lifelong friendship, the bodies of Mrs. Mary F. Gates and Miss F. H. Newall will not be separated in death until the grave is ready to receive them. A joint funeral service will be held this afternoon, conducted by Rev. Arnold Bede. Mrs. Gates' body will be sent to Oak Park, Ill., and that of Miss Newall to Kenosha, Wis. The two women were residents of Beverly Hills and during their long stay in California were inseparable. They came to Long Beach to attend the Empire Day celebration and were found close to each other in the death pit.

Other funerals today will be that of Thomas Beck and Mrs. Augustus Bartz. Tomorrow the triple funeral of Mrs. Warren Lett and her children, Dorothy and Harold, will be conducted, and also that of Rev. Ira Kilbourne. The body of the latter will be sent to Smithland, Iowa.

There were three funerals yesterday—those of Miss Anna Stone, Mrs. D. E. Wallace, and Mrs. Martha J. Burnett, and Miss Lillian M. Holme. The latter's body is being taken back to Denver by her brother, J. E. Holme. Yesterday morning Holme made the statement that as far as he or any of his sister's relatives are concerned they will sign a waiver of any possible claim for damages, as he does not believe in "commercializing" the death of his loved one. This was in answer to the advances made to him by one of a horde of ghoulish claim agents who are pestering bereaved persons in Long Beach, and elsewhere in the hope of feathering their own nests.

Yesterday afternoon while the coroner's jury was in session the British flag was placed with Old Glory on the municipal flagpole and the two waved in union, in mute sympathy.

Chief of Police Austin yesterday morning issued a bulletin that all the policemen who went down in the pit Saturday are improving in condition, and all but one out of bed. The exception is Patrolman McCown, who is believed to be injured internally in addition to having broken ribs.

MAKING A MAN.

United States Commissioner Reuben Boy charged with Postoffice Robbery on His Own Recognizance. Louis Pratt, the 11-year-old boy charged with having entered and robbed the postoffice at Caltona a week ago, was released on his own recognizance yesterday by United States Commissioner Van Dyke, to appear for a hearing June 4.

The boy was compelled to associate with hardened criminals in the County Jail and his shoes were stolen by one of them. Deputy United States Marshal Ervin Dingle personally bought him a new pair before he appeared before the commissioner.

The fact that Pratt, compelled to be with men steeped in crime, resented such association, impelled the commissioner to make the conditions easier. When he was released on his own recognizance, young Pratt in thanking the commissioner, cried:

The Municipal Campaign.

REVENUE BASIS FOR UTILITIES.

Shenk Sounds Slogan Sure to Rally Voters.

Make Our Assets Pay Taxes, His Business Plan.

Socialist Apaches Endeavor to Harass Meeting.

Four Municipal Conference meetings were addressed last evening by John W. Shenk, Albert Lee Stephens, J. W. Snowden, Capt. H. Z. Osborne and Alexander MacKelgan. J. S. Conwell was an added starter at one of these gatherings which were notable for their earnestness, enthusiasm and determination in the cause of efficiency, good government, honest administration and civic decency.

The first meeting at the home of Mrs. R. H. F. Varel, No. 2124 Michigan street, was followed by others in the beautiful chapel of the Hollenbeck home; a street-corner session, at Echo Park and Sunset boulevard, and concluding with a parlor meeting at the home of J. W. Cate, No. 3840 Wilshire street.

At each of these meetings Shenk reiterated his now well-understood declaration of principle. The question of decency, he said, is one which should never have been necessary to raise in Los Angeles; but, he added, "since it has been raised by my opponent, it cannot be ignored. It is an issue which the women have been quick to see and it is one which they may be depended upon to determine at the polls next Tuesday."

Shenk stated that the years he has spent in the city's service have fitted him to carry on the big enterprises to which the municipality is committed without wasting any time in becoming acquainted with the duties of the office. His declaration that the only way to reduce taxes is to place the revenue-producing public utilities upon a revenue-producing basis was applauded from Boyle Heights to Western avenue, and his statement that in his opinion the 40-cent-per-foot water extension rule should be suspended until all of the city officials delegated with responsibility in the matter have an opportunity to consider the problem and devise an equitable solution found favor.

The Councilman's candidates pledged themselves to give the city a business administration and a dollar's worth of efficiency for every dollar of taxes collected.

At the Sunset-boulevard meeting Len B. Rector talked to the crowd in addition to a Socialist settlement and the first "rough-house" tendencies of the campaign were encountered when a small group of "Apaches" attempted to break up the meeting. A request was sent to police headquarters for a motorcycle policeman, but up to the time the meeting adjourned, half an hour later, no attention had been paid to it.

JESS NAILS IT.

NOT A SUPPORTER OF ROSE. Stoddard Jess, chairman of the Municipal Conference of 1913, yesterday overtook and nailed to the mast a suburban rumor which has been freely circulated to the effect that Jess had enlisted under the opposition banner.

"It has been reported to me," said Jess, "that men connected with the candidacy of Police Judge Rose are circulating the statement that I am not, in fact, a supporter of John W. Shenk, but that I intend to vote for Mr. Rose."

"I desire, in the most emphatic manner, to brand any and all such statements as absolutely false. I am for John W. Shenk first, last, and all the time and I believe he will be selected on Tuesday next by a very substantial majority. I believe Mr. Rose is losing strength fast, and I am, at the same time, confident that Mr. Shenk is rapidly gaining support in all sections of the city and from among all classes of our people."

"During the past few days the weakening of the Rose campaign has been decidedly perceptible—especially since it became known that P. H. McCarthy of San Francisco was aiding in the effort to select Rose and defeat Shenk. The business community of Los Angeles cannot afford to assist Mr. McCarthy in gaining a foothold here."

The direct and comprehensive statements made day by day by Mr. Shenk on the most important questions in municipal affairs, not only show that he stands squarely on the platform of the Municipal Conference, but that he is big enough for the job and will prove a Mayor that will make good."

A routing majority for Shenk, Stephens and the entire conference ticket will insure a safe and efficient city government."

No Political Holiday.

In spite of the fact that this is a holiday the Municipal Conference will continue its work for Shenk, Stephens and a clean, decent and efficient administration without interruption, and Shenk is scheduled for more appearances than a four-show theater.

This afternoon he will attend a woman's meeting at the residence of Mrs. George Rice, No. 5308 Pasadena avenue, and this evening will appear at five meetings arranged by the Municipal Conference besides a few sessions otherwise planned. These meetings are important and include one at the home of Mrs. Clara Shortridge Foltz, and at the Hotel Hollywood.

The first stop of the auto flotilla will be at Lucas and Ingraham streets, where the committee in charge is Mrs. A. L. McAuley, Mrs. Victoria Terry, Mrs. W. S. Derby, Mrs. Victor H. Tuttle, Mrs. C. W. Hubbard, Mrs. M. L. Holman, Mrs. A. H. Van Pelt, Mrs. J. M. Clute, Mrs. Drew Pruitt, Mrs. R. C. King, Mrs. J. L. Mail and Mrs. M. Croker.

The second meeting is arranged for the Beking warehouse at No. 1235 South Figueroa street, and the third at No. 115 South Normandie avenue, where Mrs. Clara Shortridge Foltz is in charge of the arrangements, assisted by Mrs. W. C. Tyler, Mrs. A. A. Martin, Miss Mary Fox, Mrs. R. A. Randall, Mrs. James Westphaling, Mrs. M. H. Manning, Mrs. A. W. La Peira, Dr. Josephine Whitner and Miss Alice J. Stevens. Frank Harold will preside.

Meeting at 8:30 at Santa Monica and Vine streets will be followed fifteen minutes later by a more elaborate function at the Hotel Hollywood, where the committee in charge is of the following personnel:

Mrs. A. L. Bartlett, Mrs. R. P. McJohnson, Mrs. Anstruther Davidson, Mrs. C. R. McCulloch, Mrs. A. R. Paul, Mrs. H. T. Wright, Mrs. Philo

Council of War.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon in the municipal headquarters in the Garland building, No. 740 South Broadway, the district managers will meet, compare notes, listen to a talk on organization by Chairman Lammert, and make their plans for bringing out the vote on election day. Tomorrow night a final meeting of precinct committees and workers will be held at the same place.

Yesterday afternoon Shenk addressed meetings at the Burlington Apartments, Ninth and Burlington streets, at No. 1725 West Adams street, and No. 2553 Ellendale place. At Municipal Conference headquarters it was said yesterday that there is no reason to revise previously formed opinions that Shenk and the entire Municipal Conference ticket will be elected by majorities depending entirely upon the total vote. The clear, independent stand of the candidate for Mayor; his renunciation of affiliation with any individual, clique, newspaper, or organization, and especially his absolute independence of E. T. Earl, and his statement that the pre-election promises have been or will be made have added to the growing conviction that his unquestioned fitness for the job together with the expert knowledge he has acquired during his connection with the City Attorney's office make the logical candidate to receive the votes of the people on Tuesday, while his repeated assurances that he will permit no lax enforcement of the laws in rallying to his support a large percentage of the women voters.

BROADWAY OF PERFECT

Don't Single-shot.

The danger of single shooting on the councilmanic ticket presents the most dangerous phase of that angle of the battle for municipal control. If this practice is indulged in to any considerable extent it may result in the election of one or more Socialists, and the Municipal Conference is urging the support of all seven of the candidates endorsed by it which leaves the voter ample material from which to select the remaining two Councilmen, although from present indications Martin Beckwith is likely to be one of these. The conference nominees are J. S. Cogwell, F. C. Langdon, Alexander MacKelgan, H. Z. Osborne, John W. Snowden, H. P. Vollmer, and F. J. Whiffen.

Straws which show the way the wind is blowing are found in the reports of district managers which are made almost daily at the Municipal Conference headquarters and in the expressions of citizens. Martin H. Pope, No. 929 St. Andrews place, gives as his reason for voting for Shenk the candidate's training through his intimate association with every department of the city government gives him a clearer understanding of the operation and co-ordination of the city business machinery. I believe him to be honest, efficient and one whose clear judgment will insure a clean, efficient government for our city."

L. O. B. Carter, No. 704 Equitable Savings Bank building, says: "I am supporting John W. Shenk for Mayor."

Hints on Hair Health

If you use our treatment, we will either stop your hair from falling or pay for the treatment ourselves.

Dandruff is a contagious disease caused by a microbe, which if not removed, causes baldness. This microbe often comes from a comb or brush belonging to someone else.

If you are troubled with dandruff, itching scalp, falling hair or baldness, you believe that Rezell "95" Hair Tonic will do more than anything else to remove the dandruff, destroy the microbe, make the scalp healthy and stop falling hair, and, if there is any life left in the roots, also promote growth of new hair.

We believe that probably 65 per cent of the cases of baldness could be cured if people would only use Rezell "95" Hair Tonic for a reasonable time, as directed.

We don't want you to take our word for this. We want you to see the merits of Rezell "95" Hair Tonic at our risk. If you use it and it does not give satisfaction, just come back to us and tell us, and we will immediately hand back to you the money you paid for it, promise nothing, give nothing and your word will be taken for it.

We are dependent upon your confidence and patronage, and we would not make these claims, or make this offer if we did not believe that Rezell "95" Hair Tonic is the very best hair preparation you can use. Two sizes of bottles, 50c and $1.00.

You can buy Rezell "95" Hair Tonic in this community.

GRUEN VERITHIN WATCH

WHEN your children's hair is gray, they will look back with grateful memory to the time when you gave them a Gruen Verithin Watch.

The Gru-en is only half as thick as the ordinary watch, light, compact, and perfectly proportioned. In any gathering the Gru-en Verithin will always be the most admired of watches.

The Gru-en is indeed the triumph of watch making—a genuine thin model watch—built on a new and mechanically perfect wheel arrangement that reduces the required movement space one-half, yet retains full size and same strength of parts.

Brock & Company show by far the most comprehensive display of these watches in Los Angeles—including the Gru-en Verithin model adjusted, $25 to $325—Lady Verithin models, $45 up—Lady Gru-en, $17.50 up—Gru-en "Wristlet" watch—the watch all Europe is wearing and which because of its convenience and beauty is rapidly becoming the most popular watch in America—Prices $15 to $300.

UNION DROPS TO TO LOW POINT.
Weak Market, Dull Support Seems Explanation.
Payment is Due on Option Again Soon.
Petrol Oil Stock is Listed on Exchange.

Union Oil stock has been on the low grade again and yesterday touched a new low point in the present movement. Except the lack of support in the market there seems to be no explanation for the present decline that has been made on the sale of a very limited number of shares. The status of the deal is to all appearances substantially unchanged. General Petroleum is busy with its own affairs, carrying on a financing campaign and putting the final touches on its pipe line. A payment of $112,113 on the option for the control is due Sunday, and there is little doubt that the check will be sent with customary promptness. Until the rights of Hallgarten & Co., New York bond holders of the company, are either negotiated, or paid out of existence, about the middle of 1914, and until money conditions improve it is probable that the deal will remain in about its present status, unless there is some unforeseen occurrence as has been predicted in certain quarters.

The position taken by Hallgarten & Co. seems to be that of the "dog in the manger," according to information from a well-informed source. The bond holders are not willing to surrender their rights unless they are paid a sufficient price for doing so, and still they are not able to exercise these rights until they are offered the control of the negotiations for taking over the control of the Union. In view of the fact that their rights expire quite a while before the time allotted for the completion of the General Petroleum deal, it is to be doubted whether or not they will ever be satisfied or that they may present a rival purchaser for the holdings of the Stewarts.

LIST PETROL STOCK.
The listing of the Petrol Company's stock on the local exchange may prove a surprise to those who are familiar with the company's activities in the newly-annexed Simi Valley field. The stock was put on the boards yesterday and closed with a bid of 50 cents at 53. Needless to say there were no sales. What purpose may have been the listing of this issue is a matter of doubt, as unless the unexpected happens it will probably remain a little business to soothe the present dullness of the market, owing to the limited number of shares.

The company has been referred to frequently in these columns—in view of the fact that it is a descendant of the original pioneer of the Simi Valley light oil district and the only producer in that interesting field of commercial extent. The Petrol company has a production estimated conservatively at not more than 160 barrels a day of oil of about 23 gravity. It brings the high price of $1.35 a barrel. The company's future prospects appear very good.

At the time the stock was listed, the production amounted to 160 to 175 barrels a month according to official statement, but this was before the last two wells were brought in. It is the most recent production, came with an output of 70 barrels a day, which in consideration of the high price of the product is no mean feat. The yield has since fallen off, however.

Formerly the basis for the altitude of the offering was $3 a share—the fact that when the 75,000 shares of the company had been utilized to pay for the property, the balance of the issued stock was sold at $2.50 a share. The par value is $1 a share, and 10,000 shares have been put out in view of the fact that the company pays no dividends and at present has a gross income of about $100 a month at the outside, there is no apparent reason why the stock should be offered at three times par—high price of original shares, and a small number issued, notwithstanding.

The officers of the Petrol are as follows: President, T. G. Gabbert; Vice-President, E. B. Mynan; Secretary, W. B. Baylis; Treasurer, Earle R. Moss. The directors are T. G. Gabbert, E. B. Mynan, J. G. Lewis, and Earle R. Moss. It is stated that the assets of the company are $144,717.75, and the liabilities—except capital stock of $24,675—are accounts payable, $799.87, and $144,648.88.

UNITED DEAL.
The deal for the transfer of property of the United Oil Company to an English syndicate is not expected to close until June 10, so far as can be learned. The deal is a definite turn until June 10, so far as can be learned. The deal is a definite turn until June 10, so far as can be learned. Memorial Day!
How will you celebrate it? Are you one of those who plan to fill the day from early morn till dewy eve with every kind of rush and hurry of so-called amusement? Or shall you make the day one of innocent and harmonious happiness, such as could not offend the ones in whose memory the day was planned?

Beginning Housekeeping.
"We have for some time intended furnishing a flat," said one of the bachelor girls, the other day, "and you may laugh when I tell you what decided us to begin just now." Of course I was interested and she said: "It was because of that sale of oriental rugs. The first thing we wanted and were certain that we wanted, was a few good rugs, and we have always thought that we could not afford real oriental ones, but when we learned about that sale, it was just the one fact needed to decide us. Elizabeth declared that she would go without everything else if she could have oriental rugs, and Jean said she would put them next to a gas range as a household necessity. I have always admired them, so you see, we were perfectly united upon the necessity of oriental rugs, and really, you would scarcely believe how cheap they are just now at that place of which we are telling you." Bargains in oriental rugs might even tempt to matrimony the otherwise invulnerable.

Novel Stationery.
In one of the big sales next week will be shown for the first time in Los Angeles a novel stationery. It has an over-fold of unique design upon which is a gold initial. The paper folds to advantage and is of an excellent quality. Unlike many of the stationery fads, this novelty is really elegant in every particular.

Fashion's Secrets.
A very youthful hat is of the blue straw-trimmed sateen braid. These hats are being worn by the Parisiennes for school, the dainty bonnets being reserved for more demure wear. A pretty notion in using tulle as a collar to silk and crepon corsets is a tulle collar of colored chiffon, bordered with a narrow piping of the crepon or charmeuse composing the gown.

Belge crepon is very much used for the lingerie blouse. It is effectively embroidered with a large flower design in crepon. Platings of black tulle finish the sleeves, collar and front. A striking hat is of black Neapolitan straw, with two American beanie roses with stems, thorn-tips, attached to the brim, extending upward to the height of ten inches.

DOG AND THE AGENT.
Fire Insurance Solicitor's Trouser, Footings and Legs Decorated by Antagonistic Pup.
Edward Brundage came near using a barrel to come home from Mike Malinelli's place, No. 227 Bloom street, yesterday afternoon.

A Nestor Wax.
"Nestor wax" is a maxim which does not fully explain itself until one sees those wax tablets made in the shape of flat-irons and intended for use in waxing the ironing iron. Just now these are for sale in a certain Broadway store for so few cents that one might almost term them free.

To Order Communion Vests.
Girls who are about to make their communion, will find it most convenient to visit that women's apparel house where needed articles are made to order, and made with extreme good taste and care. Of quite as much importance as her wedding veil, is the communion veil to the girl who is religiously inclined.

THE opening of the Panama Canal during the coming autumn season means the beginning of a new era on the lowlands of the valley.
"Industrial cities" and "Industrial centers" will play havoc with the residential features of many portions of the open territory in the lowlands, and we will be crowded in upon by a new mass of citizens from foreign lands.
The hour has come when fathers and mothers must choose the place for their permanent home near Los Angeles. The formerly beautiful Angel City is becoming a seething mass of commercialism.
You must decide what environment you will select to rear your children. Whether you will dwell amidst the pure and refining influence of the hills with mountain recreations and outdoor life or at the beaches with the inevitable accompaniment of vice and glare and noise.
There is only one place in the foot-hills near the city where you have running brooks all summer, and an abundance of trees.
There are plenty of places to buy building lots—plenty of places to buy sites with fine view—but your heart yearns for the running brook, and this one place is now ready and when gone will be gone forever beyond your reach.

The woman of the future will be a different creature from the woman of the present. She will be more independent, more self-reliant, more capable of handling the affairs of the world. For surely she, the mother of the race, the cherisher of all that is highest and best, could not stand still and see the world of men and action pass her by. The everyday picture of woman freed from many of the old-time inhibitions of her active responsibility of citizenship, is too familiar for me to throw a stronger light upon it, but it all brings home the fact that we are here and now a part of the changing order.

What West Sacramento Means to the Investor
Of all subdivision property ever offered the people of California there has never been a project more reputable, more secure, more certain of immediate increase in value than is West Sacramento. It is backed by the strongest financial interests in the West, and all improvements, proposed and projected, are guaranteed by the company.
The improvements represent the most advanced ideas in community development. As these improvements progress the value of the land climbs steadily higher. Under intensive cultivation this land is producing every day of the year. Crop failure here is an absolute impossibility. Fruits are unknown at WEST SACRAMENTO. Nowhere else in the country does high-class farm land lie so close to a big city. Yet the price of this land is based not upon its advantages but upon what it will produce. The property at the southern end of WEST SACRAMENTO has already been sold. That which is now offered on sale is three miles nearer Sacramento. Yet the price remains unchanged. The subdivision now offered is the last that will be sold at the present low price. If you know how Sacramento has developed in the last few years you will know how certain it is to reach over into WEST SACRAMENTO. It has already started. A man with money to invest can place his savings to better advantage here than anywhere in California. Better visit Sacramento. Let us satisfy you beyond doubt that we are backing up every claim we've ever made for WEST SACRAMENTO.

—are you cramped

—in a crowded residence district that is turning into a semi-business locality?

—Are you contending with the inconveniences of living outside of the 25-minute car service on a 5-cent line?

—both of these conditions are far from normal.

—You may have a large lot with the ample breathing space of the country.

—You can adjoin the Wilshire district with its costly, exclusive homes and unequalled conveniences of the city—in Melrose Court.

—Melrose Court is ideal—it was planned for you—one or two lots remain at $1250.00—some trifle higher.

—The Briggs Co. and the Wilshire District are synonymous.

You may not care how long it takes to get a suit of clothes if it's right when you get it; the trouble is, the suit you wait two weeks for isn't any more likely to be right than the one you buy ready and wear home; or get the next day. Then there do come times, occasionally, when you need a suit or overcoat quickly; time-saving is important then.

This advantage in time required is only one of the reasons for buying ready clothes instead of made-to-measure; another advantage is that for $25 you'll get as good value as the average made-to-measure at $40 or more. The reasons for buying ours, of all the ready clothes you could buy, are that in style; in tailoring; in all-wool fabrics, you know you're going to get the right thing before you start.

We make suits as low as $18 and up to $50. Our mark in a garment is a sure sign of satisfaction; guaranteed. It's a small thing to look for, but a big thing to find.

NAT GOODWIN IN NEW ROLE

Noted Actor Will Open Cafe at Beach Today—Has Many Theatrical Numbers.

SANTA MONICA, May 29.—Nat Goodwin will act a new role today, appearing as mine host at the informal opening of his new restaurant, the Cafe Nat Goodwin, which the comedian has built on his pier at Santa Monica. The restaurant occupies the entire Goodwin pier, and is said to be the largest building devoted exclusively to eating for the inner man on the Pacific Coast, the main dining-room itself being 115x255. Perhaps the most distinctive feature of the new cafe is a palmroom exclusively for the use of ladies.

Afternoon teas have already been arranged by society women of Los Angeles to be held at the pier cafe in the near future. Mr. Goodwin has imported from New York Louis Ricketts, for years chef at Martin's, to preside over the kitchen. Two other chefs will aid M. Ricketts.

For tonight's opening a sextette of clever entertainers will furnish original diversions. Mr. Goodwin vouches for their versatility, having engaged them in various cities during his recent Coast tour in "Oliver Twist."

TODAY'S PROGRAMME.

Parade at 9 o'clock this morning followed by patriotic exercises at Liberty Park.

Decoration of graves of the honored dead at the Hollywood Cemetery at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Memorial Day Programme Begins With a Parade.

Investigator of "Times" Disaster Answers Last Call.

PASADENA, May 29.—George A. Damon, dean of Throop College of Technology, and Dr. W. A. Cundy, until recently vice-president of the Municipal League, crossed swords before Justice of the Peace Dunham yesterday, over the question of whether or not the educator had been remiss in allowing some ferns at a house he rented from the physician to die.

Dr. Cundy claimed that the blame lay with Damon; that by the terms of the lease he was to care for the lawn, but not the ferns. Damon failed to see such a distinction. The suit was brought by G. C. Key, a collection agent, and a judgment of $48 was granted, but not until after interesting proceedings were finished. Raymond Thompson took part in these as counsel for Dr. Cundy and Damon defended himself. Dr. James A. B. Scherer, president of Throop College, and several other prominent persons connected with the institution were present. The suit was brought after Damon had received divers and sundry notices and dunning letters, which he declared had caused him to take the course he did.

"Dr. Cundy never mentioned the plants to me," he said on the witness stand. "He hid me a little for not watering the lawn, which he was to take care of. If the ferns died it was under his care, not mine. I don't know that they did die. I paid more than the house was worth, enough to cover all damages. And then Dr. Cundy did not cut down part of an umbrella tree so that we could get into it. My little kids cut the wood-work some, but I had paid $12 in plumbers' bills, and that offset all damages. I had no idea that anything was wrong until I began to receive 'dead heat' notifications and all sorts of young literature. I didn't pay the bill because I didn't think I owed anything. Then I got a garnishee notice. That made me laugh. It was a fake notice, anyway. It was not issued in the regular form."

Dr. Cundy brushed his lawyer aside to rise and tell Damon that his manner was defective.

"Did you sweep the sidewalk?" he asked.

"Well, did you?" queried Damon. "Your father, who lived next door, swept it," declared Dr. Cundy. "He made your fire in the morning, too."

"Nice father," said Damon. "The educator made his own address to the court."

"I am ashamed to be here," he said, "but when I am attacked by 'rough neck' tactics, and 'dead-end' letters, I can do nothing but bring it here. There used to be a day of stage coaches, when they held up stage coaches."

Here he was interrupted by a question and the remainder of the speech remained unfinished.

After the suit was ended the litigants shook hands and quitted the courtroom together. Each, however, declared he had been in the right.

TO KEEP PLAYGROUND.

The children of the city will continue to have the use of Carmelita playground, has written letters here, resenting insinuations made by a local paper that he was interfering in the inner harbor question before the War Department, and was trying to hasten the hearing before the board of engineers to prevent the city's representative, ex-Mayor Charles H. Windham, reaching Washington in time to attend.

Congressman Bell in supporting his claims produces a telegram dated May 9, addressed to the City Council, in which he says he thinks a June date would be advisable, in order to give additional time to secure information. Receiving no reply to this and thinking perhaps the representative was on his way he then wired that he and Congressman Stephens had arranged a hearing for May 19, but after studying the McKinstry report, he thought a postponement would strengthen the position and claims of Long Beach in advocacy of a survey of the harbor entrance.

In reply he received a telegram from Mayor Hatch saying a June postponement would be satisfactory, which he then secured, the Board of Engineers fixing the date for June 16. In concluding his letter, Congressman Bell says:

"I may be pardoned in saying that while I can overlook the fact that I feel I have not had the hearty cooperation from those in Long Beach necessary to secure best results, and while I would welcome any aid and assistance given me in this matter, I do not feel justified in allowing erroneous and misleading statements to go uncorrected."

NO OSTENTATION.

The local G.A.R. post at a called meeting decided to observe Memorial Day with as little display as possible and to enter into the real spirit of sorrow which has fallen upon this city making every part of their programme a sacred service for the dead and avoid all demonstration in the parade or memorial services which will detract from the solemnity of the present day of grief.

All veterans and members of the ladies' auxiliaries, Sons of Veterans, Spanish War Veterans, and Co. H. Seventh Regiment, will form on American avenue, and march west on Broadway directly to Pacific Park, being joined there by the school children, coming in the order of the cenotaph, while the W.R.C. are holding their ritualistic service for the unknown dead. Details of men and women will be sent out on the pier to the outer wharf to strew flowers on the waters for the sailor dead, the main portion of the parade reforming and marching to the First Methodist Church for public services. Special music will be furnished by Prof. Eyer and members of the church choir and the Gettysburg address and Gen. Logan's first Memorial Day order will be read by the adjutant. The memorial address will be given by Rev. W. E. Cookman, pastor of Central M. E. Church, and the son of a veteran soldier.

In the afternoon auto will take the veterans to the cemeteries, where the graves will be strewn with flowers, the horse-drawn caissons being preceded by Commander W. G. Cowan of the local post, made the following statements: G. H. Darrow, officer of the R. G. A. L. P. G. A. Finch and Bureau aides.

LONG BEACH, May 29.—Congressman Bell, in whose district Long Beach is situated, has written letters here, resenting insinuations made by a local paper that he was interfering in the inner harbor question before the War Department, and was trying to hasten the hearing before the board of engineers to prevent the city's representative, ex-Mayor Charles H. Windham, reaching Washington in time to attend.

Congressman Bell in supporting his claims produces a telegram dated May 9, addressed to the City Council, in which he says he thinks a June date would be advisable, in order to give additional time to secure information. Receiving no reply to this and thinking perhaps the representative was on his way he then wired that he and Congressman Stephens had arranged a hearing

Seventy Years Old When Last He Marries, But His Years of Discretion Play Him False—Second Trial Favors Woman—Great Bundle of Papers in Evidence.

When John K. Smith, aged 70, met

After the honeymoon, trouble loomed on the horizon. Smith claimed his wife ejected him from her house and on the same day filed a suit for divorce and obtained a decree. He then brought action against his wife, claiming she had abandoned him. The court of Dyre. He alleged that four days after marriage he was ejected from his influence upon him as the agreement was, he said, that he was to feed her property to him, and he was to give her the proceeds at the death of either the property of both of them. He conveyed his property to Mrs. Smith, and she promptly had the deed recorded, but he never had the deed recorded. The case was tried by Judge Wood, who gave judgment for Smith. He said that he had said his property in trust. A condition was made in the judgment in the shape of a mortgage which Mrs. Smith had lifted. He said that he had heard the case was heard by Judge Welborn yesterday, who gave judgment for the former party.

Mrs. Smith testified that Smith had conveyed the property to her before the case was tried.

Marriage. The gift was voluntary and the wife was not under any duress to marry him. She declared the gift was crazy about her. Thus Smith's wife was not under any duress in the disaster. He not only lost his wife but also his property.

SUIT WELD PAPERED.
DISPUTE OVER PROPERTY.

More than 3500 checks, notes, deeds, mortgages and contracts have been filed in the case. In the trial of the action brought by Mrs. McCadden against her step-son, J. C. W. Wood, to quiet title to the property, which was transferred to Mrs. McCadden by Mrs. Wood one week before her death, McCadden's husband. The suit is being heard by Judge Conroy, and has been in progress for nearly a year. McCadden died of a fourth week to complete the evidence.

Mr. Wood's were married December 24, 1904. Mrs. Wood alleges the house and lot in McCadden place are

To Mrs. McCadden by grant deed on July 15, 1911, and July 22 she left the premises. Wood remained in possession and was to vacate the property in value at about $20,000.

Wood alleged the deed to Mrs. McCadden was procured clandestinely and without his knowledge or consent. He testified understanding with his wife was that the proceeds were to be recovered and thereafter was to be the common property of both. In pursuance of this agreement he alleged he expended about $8000, and the documents and exhibit were produced to show how the money was spent.

HICKS' TRIAL.
JULY DATE SELECTED.

The trial of George H. Bizby, the Long Beach multi-millionaire, on the charge of contributing to the delinquency of Marie Brown Levy and Cleo Holte, began yesterday.

Bizby appeared through his attorney, Oscar Lawler, before Judge Wilbur in the Juvenile Court yesterday.

The trial, which the trial date was named for June 10.

The continuance was granted on the showing that the transcript of the testimony of the witnesses was not ready for Bizby was not finished. Bizby is under $5000 bonds in each case.

Richard Hollingsworth, automobile salesman, was arrested yesterday morning behind closed doors yesterday, was bound over to the Superior Court in $1000 bonds by Judge Wilbur on the quency of the Evelyns. Quick, a minor, and a motion-picture actress. Among the witnesses were Christine Neal and Evelyn North, who are wards of the court in contributing charges.

RUSSELL MARRIAGE MART.

The testimony of the Russian Embassy, Brankinoff, Russian girl, did not develop the sensation promised in the Juvenile Court yesterday when Judge Wilbur began his investigation in the Little Russian marriage mart. The girl, it was alleged, had been ordered to marry a man who consents to marry a man selected for them.

Jennie went through the form of betrothal and the civil marriage was happened by the humane officers. She was released on Sunday, she said, but did not want to marry a selected husband, but later she thought she would, inasmuch as the neighbors seemed to think the marriage a good thing. She said she had never seen him, but that she had never seen him. Both said they did not desire to marry, but that the situation was asked them by Judge Wilbur. Attorney Stevens stated that when the hearing is resumed next Wednesday, both girls will be present, and that they will be kept in the juvenile hall in Little Rock. The reason they were not frank in Juvenile Court was, she said, because they were scared.

This Store Closed All Day Today—Memorial Day

—The smoke of the last battle has been blown away by nearly five decades of sun-warmed breezes and every year brings brightening luster to the fame of the heroes of those grim four years.

—And today we pause for veneration — alike of the heroes here and those gone Yonder, strew flower garlands and with martial music stir the echoes of that ancient strife. Echoes freed now from animosities—stirred only "lest we forget."

The man, on the right, is wearing a suit and is sitting on the counter, looking at the shoes. There are several pairs of shoes on the counter. The background is simple, with a few lines suggesting a store interior.

months' war between Turkey and the allied Balkan states is ended. The peace of London was signed today in the picture gallery of St. James Palace.

Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Secretary, presided over the formalities. The following peace delegates signed the preliminary treaty: Osman Nisami Pasha for Turkey, Dr. Danef for Bulgaria, Stefan Novakovich for Servia, Stephanos Skoulafis for Greece, and M. Pavlovitch for Montenegro.

The Bulgarian and Turkish peace delegates also signed a protocol providing for the immediate removal of their respective armies from the scene of operations.

DRAMATIC PROTEST.

The only dramatic feature of the historic occasion was M. Pavlovitch's refusal to keep the proclamation that Montenegro had been "deposited of her just share of the spoils of a war." He said, "I am of the opinion that 'England, which took the lead in the application,' would take every step to compensate Montenegro for her sacrifice."

"We have signed the preliminary
